San Pedro Nonualco
Listing ID: 001463594042

The terrain is semi-flat and rugged, with high to very high fertility, at an altitude of 1,300 meters above sea level. This agricultural land is suitable for growing fruit trees and basic grains, but its morphology also makes it favorable for pastures. Excellent location on the edge of the road leading to Hacienda Veja. There are fruit trees such as lemon, orange, tangerine, and other fruits. The farm has areas with tall weeds that have high agricultural potential. It also has basic grain crops in hilly areas that help clean the land, keep the soil firm, and prevent erosion.
