3.46 Acres Estate with Complete Infrastructure — Suchitoto Route A versatile property, fully developed and ready for its next chapter Just minutes from the highway connecting San Martín and Suchitoto, this 3.46 acres estate offers something uncommon: complete, fully functional infrastructure that has been built, maintained, and successfully used for years, all set on a spacious property surrounded by lush vegetation along one of El Salvador's fastest-growing tourism corridors. For several years, the property operated as a retreat center, rented to churches and organizations for youth camps and group retreats. That chapter has come to an end, and the owners are now offering the property for a new purpose. This is not the sale of a business—it is the sale of the real estate itself, complete with all existing infrastructure, ready for its next owner to enjoy, invest in, or redevelop. W...
